Sullivan, in his own behalf, told how he had gone into the house merely to procure a match. He admitted that he had been drinking, but had no intention of trying to steal anything. "Scope' was still testifying when a recess was declared at 1 o'clock for lunch. Court was resumed at 2 o'clock and Judge Bennett said to Attorney Samuel B. Harvey, who was acting for the state's attorney, that the evidence submitted by the state could not allow the jury to find the accused guilty and suggested that the case against Sullivan be nolled and this was done. Sullivan left the courtroom a very much elated man when he realized

DRINK THE PLEA

Released, to Be Taken Home by Lebanon Officer.

There were three cases before Judge W. A. Arnold in the police court Wednesday morning. John Curran was arraigned on the charge of being drunk Tuesday evening. He entered a plea of guilty. The police said that he had caused no disturbance and Curran said that he was on his way home, but he was unable to get there because of his condition. A fine of $5$ and costs was imposed, and the court gave him an opportunity to settle.

James Doyle entered a plea of guilty to being drunk. The court toid him that he had given him more than ample opportunity to quit drinking, but for some reason he did not seem to appreciate it. The court sentenced him is the suited and the set of the suited because of his conditions. for some reason he did not seem to appreciate it. The court sentenced him to thirty days in the county jail.

Theodore Casinsky was arraigned on the charge of assault on Felix Lesinki. He was not put to plea. Proseguting Attorney E. Frank Bugbee told the court that the complainant in the case had evidently got a case of "cold feet" as he had not put in an appearance to testify, consequently with the perto testify, consequently, with the per-mission of the court, he would nolle the case, as the accused was wanted in Lebanon on a more serious charge and there was an officer present with a carriage to take him there. The court agreed, and William A. Watson, a Lebanon officer, placed the accused under arrest on the charge of assault upon his wife.

> YOUR BABY'S HEALTH DEPENDS ON ITS NOURISHMENT

In nature's original plan, infants were nourished by mother's milk, but in our modern civilation this is often neither possible nor even natural food, one instinctively turns to cow's but this cannot always be used, as owing to its va-riable quality and the heavy indigestible curd, the delicate stomach of a young baby cannot always di-gest the nutriment which it undoubtedly contains. In such cases
